AUDITOR'S REPORT.

This certifies that the undersigned has examined the accounts of the Selectmen, Treasurer and Road Agents, and finds them correctly cast and properly vouched.

S. E. WILLIAMS, Auditor.

REPORT OF THE JUNCTION CEMETERY COMMITTEE.

At the annual town meeting, March 14, 1893, the town chose a committee "to lay out and improve and fence the enlargement of the cemetery near the Junction subject to the approval of the selectmen."

Your committee report progress. They employed Arthur W. Dudley of Brentwood as surveyor, and fixed the boundaries of the new cemetery, and secured tentative plans for laying out family burial lots. They have removed the old walls from the front and the north end of the cemetery, and built a substantial wall on the west side of it. On the front they have graded the ground, made a sidewalk and placed heavy curbstones, properly drilled for an iron rail fence. There is needed the securing of this iron fence and corresponding gates, and also a wooden fence for the south end of the cemetery. Probably something expended in grading the walks and improving the lots would be amply returned to the town treasury by parties purchasing lots.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES H. FITTS,	} Cemetery Committee.

Selectmen's Report.

In submitting reports for the year ending February 15, 1894, we respectfully refer to such features of the record as appear to merit special attention.

TAX DISCOUNTS.

The failure of the town to provide for discounts on taxes, suggested questions upon which legal counsel was taken. The Board was advised that neither the Selectmen, nor a special town meeting, had authority to make tax discounts ; but that the sum appropriated by the town as an offset to contemplated discounts, could be covered into the treasury and made available for contingent expenses.

TOWN OFFICE.

On the 21st of March the building next north of the Congregational Church was leased as a town office. Semi-monthly meetings for the transaction of current business have been held during the year. This arrangement has facilitated prompt and systematic dispatch of business and proved a convenience to officers and citizens of the town. We recommend a renewal of the lease, and an appropriation to provide for incidental expenses and suitable furniture for said office.

ROAD AGENTS.

It was found impracticable for the gentlemen chosen at the last annual meeting as Road Agents to qualify and act as a Board. Subsequently these gentlemen entered into an agreement making division of territory, money and management. The road work for the year has been conducted under this arrangement.

Whether the public interests would be better served by one Agent for the entire town, or by three as at present, and whether in the latter event the men chosen should be required to qualify and organize as a Board, are questions submitted to the deliberate judgment of the town,

CEMETERIES.

The care of the Village Cemetery and some improvements made with consent of the owner have involved an expenditure of $47.93, charged to the Walker fund. An adjustment of title by which the town would obtain legal control of the rights of way and appurtenances at this cemetery would, in our opinion, promote the public interests; proposals to effect this change are under consideration by the present owner of the property. The enlargement of the Piscassic Cemetery, authorized by the town, has been made. The land purchased has been improved by a bank wall on the road front and a substantial running wall upon the north and east sides. The total expense of this improvement, including cost of land, was $190.62.

The appropriation of $500 for improvement of the Junction Cemetery has been expended. The disposal of bills incurred in excess of the sum named, and the question of further appropriations for the work at that cemetery are matters for action at the ensuing town meeting. Special attention is invited to the report of the committee to whom the improvements were intrusted by vote of the town.

RAILROAD TAXES.

The tax statement rendered by the State Treasurer (under date of November 25, 1893,) showed a shrinkage of $721.84 in railroad taxes as compared with 1892. In answer to inquiry by the board, the Treasurer (under date of December 4) explained that last year this town "was allowed the tax on 875 shares Dover & Winnipiseogee stock, held by Amos Paul as trustee, at 85 cents per share, amounting to $743.75. This year there is no Dover & Winnipiseogee Railroad, it having been consolidated with the Boston & Maine." Incident to the settlement of accounts with the State Treasurer, the Chairman of the board submitted a series of questions which elicited information showing that the tax upon property of the Concord & Portsmouth road lying in this town was credited and paid to Newmarket. The claim of this town was subsequently presented to the officers of the Concord & Montreal road, who make valuation returns to the State of Concord & Portsmouth property. On the 30th of December a letter was received from the Treasurer of the Concord & Montreal road stating that "Having investigated the matter, we find that the line of the Concord & Portsmouth railroad is located in the town of South Newmarket, and not in the town of Newmarket as we have reported it. Our returns to the State for 1894 will be corrected to read South Newmarket." Hon. E. G. Eastman, as counsel for this town, reported by letter, dated January 26, 1894, that the Concord and Portsmouth tax prior to 1890 was paid to this town and that for the years 1890, '91, '92 and '93 had been paid to Newmarket to the amount of $494.30. A claim for this sum has been presented to the Selectmen of that town, and, under advice of counsel, is embodied in the financial statement herewith.

WATER WORKS.

The committee on water works filed a report Dec. 22, stating that it was unanimously voted "That in view of the state of business in town it is inexpedient to take any action at present."

PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Attention is invited to the instructive report of the Library Trustees. The Public Library as a new and deserving institution is commended to friendly patronage and generous support.

FINANCIAL.

The report of the treasurer gives in detail the receipts and disbursements of the year.

An analysis of the records of the Board and of the Treasurer's accounts show that of the items charged as miscellaneous $1,068.79 were in payment of obligations incurred prior to March 14, 1893, including the note of $800.00 provided for by appropriation.

The Board holds that the disbursements of public money should be limited to the amounts named in specific appropriations, except when necessary to meet obligations enjoined by law, or required by contingent public interests.

We are of opinion that, notwithstanding the permanent reduction of $743.00 in railroad taxes as above noted, the sum of $4,500 wisely appropriated and judiciously expended will meet the requirements of the town for the ensuing year.

The New Hampshire legislature passed an act, approved April 11, 1891. "To Promote the Establishment and Efficiency of Free Public Libraries," and provided for the appointment of a State Board of Library Commissioners to carry the act into effect. The town of South Newmarket, under a special article in its annual warrant, March 14, 1893, "Voted to accept the conditions proposed by the state in regard to public libraries," and "appropriated $50.00 for the use and maintenance of its Free Public Library." The Selectmen, April 14, 1893, qualified three persons as Library Trustees "for the care, custody and distribution of the books furnished by the state in a manner satisfactory to the State Board of Library Commissioners." The trustees have attended to the duties assigned them.

Josiah H. Whittier, secretary of the State Board of Library Commissioners, April 18, 1893, called upon the Trustees to pledge the town to establish a Free Public Library, to appropriate annually a sum not less than $25.00 for the use and maintenance of said library, to secure a fitting place for keeping the library, to appoint a librarian, to make suitable regulations for cataloguing, shelving and circulating the books, and to insure the books received by gift from the state. Upon complying with these conditions, the state would furnish the town books to the value of $100.00.

By the kindness of Mr. C. B. Stuart, a place for the Library was secured in his store, where it is of comparatively easy access. One hundred volumes were received from the State in the month of August. The Ladies' Book Club of South Newmarket generously placed their valuable library of 408 volumes in the care of the Trustees in December. The heirs of Dr. John M. Brodhead also placed his private library in the custody of the Trustees to be guarded and circulated in the town. From this source there have been secured 520 volumes of standard authors in superior binding and of great value. Other volumes of a miscellaneous character, comprising many Congressional reports and documents, are in store for the service of special inquirers. Additional volumes to the number of 33 have been received from various sources.

Donors of books, 1893: State of New Hampshire, 100; South Newmarket Book Club, 408; John M. Brodhead library, 520; estate of George O. Paul, 14; estate of Ezekiel Sanborn, 12; estate of Mrs. Ezekiel Sanborn, 2; Miss Harriet E. Sanborn, 1; Miss C. A. Brodhead, 1; Mrs. O. C. Sanborn, 2; Wilbur A. Littlefield, 1; total, 1061.

Volumes, to the number of 737, have been catalogued, classified, labelled and placed before the public: A—Arts and Industries, 11; B—Biography and Family History, 108; D—Drama and Poetry, 24; F—Fiction, 286; H—History, 119; J—Juvenile, 42; L—Literature, 22; M—Miscellaneous, 15; P—Periodicals, —; R—Reference, 11; S—Science, Philosophy and Natural History, 22; T—Theology, Sociology and Religion, 15; V—Voyages, Travels and Researches, 62: total, 737.

The whole number of books now on the shelves of the library for consultation and delivery is 1061. They were insured to the value of $1000 February 20, 1894.

The Library was opened for the circulation of books, September 23, 1893. The following persons were the first to apply for distribution cards and to receive books on the evening of the opening: Lewis C. Hall, Charles J. Leddy, Susie M. Stuart, George E. Andrews, Mrs. Ina S. Stuart. Distribution cards have now been issued to 176 persons; three of these persons have moved from the town and one card has been called in. The Library has been opened 22 days. The average weekly circulation has been 50 volumes; average monthly circulation, 219 volumes. The smallest weekly circulation, September 30, 1893, was 3 volumes; the largest, February 3, 1894, was 87 volumes. The smallest monthly circulation, September, 1893, was 9 volumes; the largest January, 1894, was 265 volumes. The percentage of fiction read has been .446; of other classes .554.

The avidity with which these books have been sought proves that this movement for a free public library was not entered upon too soon. The Trustees and other willing helpers feel themselves richly compensated for the time and labor they have spent by witnessing this eager patronage of the Library, and they feel sure that it promises to be worthy of the pride and fostering care of all our citizens.

SOUTH NEWMARKET, February 21, 1894.

Annual Report of the School Board

OF THE TOWN OF SOUTH NEWMARKET, 1893-4.

The School Board respectfully submit their Annual Report. It will present an account of the financial affairs of the district, together with a statement of the condition of the several schools in town, and form the basis of the report to the State Department of Public Instruction.

SCHOOL MEETING.

The Annual School Meeting was held in the town hall, March 18, 1893. James W. Robinson was chosen moderator, George W. Pollard, clerk and auditor. William H. Conner was elected a member of the school board for three years. All persons having the other qualifications for suffrage, are entitled, without regard to sex, to vote in school affairs.

ORGANIZATION.

The School Board organized March 20, 1893, and chose the following sub-committees: Augustus W. Richards on Piscassic school, William H. Conner on finance and repairs, James H. Fitts on superintending text books and supplies. It was judged best to employ the same teachers and pay the same wages as last year.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

The Grammar school room has been furnished with a book-case to contain the school supplies for the town. The Piscassic school house and wood shed have been shingled, and the school room furnished with a new stove. Teacher's chairs have been placed in the Grammar and Piscassic schools.

SCHOOLS AND TEACHERS.

Three of our teachers have had charge of their respective schools during the entire school year. Miss Bertha J. Hobbs, at the close of the spring term, tendered her resignation as teacher of the Intermediate school, and Miss R. Althea Todd was elected to the position. Miss Hobbs had charge of the school for many successive terms, to the entire satisfaction of the patrons and great benefit of pupils. She writes :

"I leave the work with appreciation of the good will shown me throughout my long term of service, not only by School Board but by pupils and parents."

Miss Todd enters upon her duties with marked enthusiasm, fidelity and success. Other teachers have maintained their accustomed interest and efficiency throughout the year.

Sickness has interfered with individual attendance without interrupting the regular routine of school life. La grippe and dreaded scarlet fever have been somewhat prevalent. Three families in which the fever appeared were closely quarantined for many weeks. These vigorous measures of the Board of Health restricted the disease to the families first afflicted and entirely crushed out the disorder. One bright boy, Percy F. Hall, died March 17, 1893, at the age of six and one-half years. During the days of ill health on the part of teachers, Mrs. Margaret E. Riley kindly acted as substitute teacher and proved that she has lost none of her wonted skill and efficiency in the school room.

TEXT BOOKS.

The text books now in use are Harrington's speller, Franklin readers, Swinton's and Patterson's grammars, Butler's geographies, Colburn's and Robinson's arithmetics, Harper's penmanship, Barnes' and Swinton's histories, Meservey's book-keeping, Hutchinson's physiology, Hart's rhetoric, Wentworth's algebra, Mowry's civil government, Well's philosophy.

SCHOOL EVENTS.

Our teachers attended the Teachers' Institute at Robinson Female Seminary, Exeter, May 11 and 12, 1893.

The schools at the Centre took an acceptable part in the services of Memorial Day, May 30, 1893. Most of the exercises were by the pupils.

A pleasant gathering in which all the schools expected to participate was held in the town hall, June 23, 1893. The day proved exceedingly stormy, and prevented the attendance of scholars from Piscassic school, which was represented only by the teacher. A large audience, however, assembled and was highly entertained by exercises from the pupils. Twenty-four parts were presented, consisting of singing, recitation, dialogue, composition and calisthenics, in which the actors did themselves great credit.

The Grammar school added to the money raised from the lecture by Rev. E. P. Tenney, January 18, 1893, and purchased in September a set of beautiful minerals for the cabinet, which they exhibit with commendable pride.

The Intermediate school placed a fine picture of George Washington on the wall of the school room, which they uncovered to their friends at the closing examination of the winter term, February 16, 1894.

One member of the School Board and three teachers attended the Teachers' Institute at Thompson Hall, Durham, January 11, 1894.

CONCLUSION.

It is becoming the custom in many quarters to criticise our common school system as failing in accomplishing its object. Sad conclusion, if true ! but it is not true. No well informed person claims that our schools are absolutely perfect in their working, but they are far from failures and are improving continually. Supervisors are constantly working to secure enlarged success. Defects are being disclosed and corrected speedily. Appropriations are larger than ever before. More attention is being paid to constrution of school buildings, to furnishings, to sanitation and to methods of instruction. Our schools were never so worthy the confidence of the community as now.

The American people, especially those of moderate incomes, owe it to their children, to carefully cherish and judiciously defend the public schools. They are the people's colleges. In them the great majority of our citizens needs must be educated. In them let it still be our ambition to train up intelligent freemen fitted for an enlightened, progressive, Christian civilization.
